

Eco-Congregation Scotland e-News January 2012

It is a New Year with new opportunities to Care for Creation.

We would like to welcome the newly created Eco-Congregation Esk & Tweed Network and Mid Argyll Network to our fold.

The Holy Trinity Church Melrose also joined our charity bringing the total number of members to 275.

This month's eNews features our Annual Gathering in April, the outcome of the Durban Climate Change Conference (COP 17) and the Tearfund Carbon Fast 2012.

Eco-Congregation at the Stop Climate Chaos Rally on the 11th January.

Annual Gathering 2012

Our Annual Gathering will be held on Saturday 21st of April in Bridge of Allan. The keynote speaker will be Stewart Stevenson MSP, minister for environment and climate change.

Photo of Chalmers Suite in Bridge of Allan Parish Church

We have prepared an advance notice flyer with full details which can be downloaded here.

There are more workshops still to organise so any congregations interested in presenting anything they have been involved in should contact us in the office (scotland@ecocongregation.org).

The 17th UN Climate Change Conference in Durban 2011

The World Council of Churches read a statement to government members from around the world on 9th December 2011 in response to conference. Read what they said on our blog by clicking here, or access their full statement on the World Council of Churches website: <http://www.oikoumene.org/>

Tearfund Carbon Fast 2012

Do you have news you want to tell Eco-Congregations about? Let us know for the next e-News. All the best from Eco-Congregation Scotland!

Follow us

Homepage www.ecocongregationscotland.org

Blog www.ecocongregationscotland.org/blog

Facebook www.ecocongregationscotland.org/facebook

Twitter www.ecocongregationscotland.org/twitter

Eco-Congregation Scotland, 121 George Street, Edinburgh, EH2 4YN

T 0131 240 2274 E scotland@ecocongregation.org

Charity Number: SC011353